RULES & REGULATIONS

- 1) EQUINE CANADA rules are guidelines. Judge's decision is final. Click Here to view EC Rulebook.
- 2) CROSS ENTRY RULES: a) The same rider cannot ride the same horse in walk/trot and loping classes. The walk/trot rider can still participate in Gymkhana classes but may only walk/trot. b) Two riders may not SHARE the same horse except for walk/trot, or one rider English, one rider Western. c) Riders may enter multiple horses, but registration fees are charged per horse/rider combination. Separate numbers will be issued. Please note: Points will be accumulated based on horse/rider combination, not just the rider.
- 3) SHOW CLOTHES: Show Clothes are not required, but boots must have heels, shirts need collars and sleeves, and pants must be riding appropriate! Tack and clothing must be safe! ASTM/SEI approved HELMETS are highly recommended for riders of all ages and are MANDATORY for ALL riders under 18 while mounted.
- 4) TACK RULES: Saddles and bridles should be appropriate to the discipline. Australian stock saddles are permissible in western classes. Side pulls, bitless bridles and bosals are allowed on any age horse. Western
- 5) NUMBERS: A re-usable number will be provided to each horse/handler combination, and is to be returned at the end of each show. (Refundable $5 deposit per number is required.) If showing more than one horse it is the exhibitor's responsibility to ensure the correct number is worn when being judged.
- 6) EQUITATION CLASSES will not have patterns but the judge may ask for a halt, back up, side pass, dropping stirrups, extension, collection and/or other appropriate skills.

Special Note: Walk = 4 beats, trot = 2 beats, canter = 3 beats. Anything else and the horse is considered to not be performing the gait and should be judged accordingly.

7) LEADLINE – Handler of horse in leadline class must be 14 years or older. Halters must be worn underneath bridles (both are required).

8) TRAIL – Trail will be run on the grass concurrently with the Gymkhana classes. No practicing of obstacles without the Judge's permission.

9) STALLIONS handlers must be 18 and over.

10) Water is available. Bring your own bucket & feed. Please clean up after your horse.

11) Safety is Cooking Lake Saddle Club's main concern at horse shows. The show judge, any two Executive Members, including a Trail Boss and/or Ring Official, reserve the right to excuse participation to those demonstrating unsafe or inhumane behaviors prior, during or after any equine function. (Reckless riding in the staging area, practicing/playing on trail class equipment without judge's permission, etc.) These same two Executive Members also reserve the right to request non riders (parents and children) to cease unsafe practices in the vicinity of the horse show. (Playing ball too close to horses, not supervising children, etc.)

13) Show Committee or judge reserves the right to refuse any Entry.

14) Abuse of horses will NOT be tolerated.

13) ON THE SHOW GROUNDS - All dogs must be on leashes and children must be controlled on the grounds and kept away from the arena fences. No galloping in the field. Walking only around the trailer parking area. No horses near the bleachers or concession area.

14) MEMBERSHIP – No CLSC Memberships sold day of show(s).

Cooking Lake Saddle Club is not liable for any injuries or damages to horse, riders or personal property. If an exhibitor is under 18 years of age, helmets are mandatory in ALL classes and a parent or guardian must sign the release form

Release & Hold Harmless Agreement

Every participant in the Cooking Lake Saddle Club shall read this notice before signing. No participant will be allowed to participate prior to signing this form as required.

"Inherent risks of equine activities" shall mean those dangers or conditions which are an integral part of equine activities, including, but not limited to:

- (i) the propensity of any equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm or death to persons on or around them and/or damage to property in their vicinity;
- (ii) The unpredictability of an equine's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals;
- (iii) The equine's response to certain hazards such as surface and subsurface objects;
- (iv) Collisions with other equines, animals, people and objects;
- (v) The potential to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or other, such as failing to maintain control over the equine or to act within his or her ability.

Neither the Cooking Lake Saddle Club, the organizing committee of the event, officials, volunteers, staff nor agents shall in any way be liable for any accident, injury, damage, loss, or for any other matter that may happen to exhibitors, competitors, participants, owners, agents or to anyone on the grounds or to any animal or article brought to the grounds. It is to be understood and agreed that by making any participation in the Cooking Lake Saddle Club, all exhibitors, competitors, participants, owners, agents and representatives acknowledge that equestrian sports involve inherent dangerous risk and do hereby indemnify and hold harmless the Cooking Lake Saddle Club, and singular, the owners, directors, officers, members, employees, agents and volunteers thereof from and against any and all loss, costs or expenses, or any claim thereof of whatever nature arising or to arise for and on account, or by reason of participant in this activity.

I have applied for or already have renewed my current AEF membership or I am a member of a 4-H Club that has joined the Cooking Lake Saddle Club as a group.
